TRACK Magazine Owner/Editor

The jumbo Heritage Place Winter Mixed Sale got underway Thursday morning in Oklahoma City and the first horse in the ring brought $80,000. Before the session was over about 7:00 p.m., 19 head brought $50,000 or greater.

The first session saw an average of more than $20,000, with 89% of the horses that went through the ring being reported as sold. The average was up 17% over last year.

Those 19 horses bringing $50,000 or greater included nine horses of racing age; six mares; one stallion, one foal in utero and one yearling.

The first session topper at $185,000 was SC Divas Cartel Man, a Corona Cartel gelding out of Champion runner and Champion producer Spit Curl Diva. A full brother to Champion Coronas First Diva $496,000, the four-year-old gelding was consigned by Lazy E Ranch, LLC, agent for Reliance Ranches, LLC, and purchased by Daniel Herrera.

The highest-selling female at $127,000 was the four-year-old Tres Seis filly B Boujee. A half-sister to G1 winner Jess B Glory $144,000, the daughter of the $102,000 winning Valiant Hero mare Glory Rider is a stakes placed winner of $42,000. Consigned by Marty Powers as agent for Running Down A Dream, she was purchased by Simmons Racing.

Jess Lips, a 13-year-old son of Mr Jess Perry, brought $120,000 from Maximillion Perez. Consigned by Dunn Ranch on behalf of Valeriano Racing, the $399,000 earner has already sired a number of big runners including Onemoreandiamgone V $174,000 and Im Jess Special V $624,000. Jess Lips is a full brother to the deceased leading sire Jesse James Jr.

James Sills paid $75,000 for the top selling yearling, a 1-1-21 colt by Apollitical Jess and out of the Hotdoggin mare Hot Charge. Bob Moore Farms consigned the colt on behalf of Rancho El Cabresto, Inc.

Several foals-in-utero sold during the session, with the leader of the pack being an $85,000 Favorite Cartel - Spit Curl Diva prospective foal that has a transfer date of 3/13/21. Purchased by Brian Gunder,

The four-year-old gelding SC Divas Cartel Man brought $185,000 to top Thursday's first session of the Heritage Place Winter Mixed Sale. Lazy E Ranch, LLC, agent sold the $208,000 earner for Reliance Ranches, LLC. Daniel Herrera was the buyer.

it was consigned by Lazy E Ranch, LLC, as agent for Reliance Ranches, LLC.

The hottest consignment of the day had to be horses that Lazy E Ranch sold for Reliance Ranches. And the hottest part of that consignment was the three out of Spit Curl Diva which brought $185,000, $85,000 and $50,000. Reliance sold 15 head for $422,000.

Spit Curl Diva,, the Champion runner that earned $829,000 and multiple track record setter and Champion producer, is scheduled to sell early in Saturday's session as #701. She is open.

The sale can be viewed live at www.heritageplace.com and a catalog is available at that site. Sale results prepared by TRACK Magazine's Maria Meras are updated every 25 head and are available at www.trackmagazine.com.

Here are the 19 head that were reported as selling for $50,000 or greater in Friday's session. The number after the sex on each horse is the current age. A similar report will be issued on Saturday and the regular MONDAY REPORT on January 17 will contain the complete sale report.

January 17 is a federal holiday, but TRACK Magazine offices will be open.
